

CHARTING THE SCRIPTURES DEUTERONOMY by Jonathan Black

Key words - remember / hear / obey / possess / this day Writer - Moses

Deuteronomy - In Greek it is called Deuteronomion which means 'the second statement of the law'. In Hebrew it is called Elle haddabharim. It means, 'These are the words', taken from chapter 1 verse 1.

And he gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge, and said, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land which I swear unto them: and I will be with thee',
Deut. 31. 23

And Moses went up from the plains of Moab unto the mountain of Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, that is over against Jericho. And the LORD shewed him all the land of Gilead, unto Dan, And the LORD said unto him, This is the land which I swear unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed: I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go over thither',
Deut. 34. 1. 4

Mezuzah (Hebrew - doorpost). Today in many Jewish homes this is fixed to the door of the home containing a small scroll inscribed with the words:

'And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes. And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates'.
Deut. 6. 6-9; 11. 18-20.

By Nebo's lonely mountain, On this side Jordan's wave, In a vale in the land of Moab, There lies a lonely grave; But no man built that sepulchre, And no man saw it e'er; For the angels of God upturned the sod, And laid the dead man there.
